SWEARS OUT WARRANT AGAINST UNION STORES

Department of Labor Charges Company With Violating Child Labor Law.

CLINEDIST BACK FROM TRIP
Returns From Danville, Where
"Clean-Up" Campaign Resulted in
More Than Fifty Prosecutions, and Submits Report.

Upon the complaint of the State Department of Labor a warrant was sworn out yesterday against the Union Stores, Inc., Seventh and Franklin Streets, charging the concern with a violation of the child labor law.

The warrant, which is regarded by the department as one of its most efficient special agents, Miss Harbison will appear for the prosecution when the case is called for trial.

The warrant was served last night upon Abraham Roberts, manager of the Union Stores. It charges him with employing children more than ten hours in every twenty-four hours.

The commissioner is much pleased with the results obtained in Danville and in other cities where a "clean-up" has been in progress. It is the stated policy of the Labor Department chief to allow all individuals and concerns affected by the new labor laws enacted by the last Legislature a fair and reasonable time to conform to the requirements of the statutes before "closing in" on them and enforcing the laws.

NOT A VIRGINIA LEE

Autograph in Old Volume Discovered in Jersey, Probably of Maryland Origin.

The tender made by Clarence H. Lohd, a citizen of Newark, N. J., who desires to restore to the Lee family of Virginia an old volume now in his possession bearing the autograph of Charles Lee, was not accepted yesterday by the family of the Lee family.

The book itself is of no note either as a literary or scientific work. It is one of the lesser works of Pierre, author of "Paul and Virginia." Dr. McIlwaine is of the opinion that Charles Lee was the member of the Lee family, who may best deserve the name of "Lafayette" Lee.

CAN'T USE SCHOOL FUNDS FOR AUTO

Judge Scott Enters Order Restraining Use of County Funds for This Purpose.

INJUNCTION IS PERMANENT

School Board May Be Held Personally Responsible for $1,973
Already Expended.

Judge R. Carter Scott yesterday granted a permanent injunction restraining the treasurer of Henrico County from honoring drafts made on him by the school superintendent, or the board of school trustees for the further upkeep of an automobile, purchased for the County Superintendent of Schools, or for the use of the school funds in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

EXPENSES WERE PAID FROM COUNTY LEVIES

The first decree in the case was not entered yesterday. It will probably be entered during the latter part of the present week or early in the week following. It was said last night that the attempt would be made to cancel the lease secured on the office of the superintendent in the Chamber of Commerce Building, and that it was probable that these offices would be re-established in the Henrico County Courthouse, where they were removed.

Judge Scott indicated his opinion that the school board funds were for the sole purpose of paying teachers' salaries, and that the money spent for the automobile and its upkeep was not for the establishment of offices in the Chamber of Commerce Building, the board had paid expenses incurred by the superintendent in attending a convention at St. Paul, Minn., last summer, and also of a trip to Fredericksburg. They embraced the expending of money from October, 1913, to June, 1914, and showed a total of $1,973.41.

EXPENSES WERE PAID FROM COUNTY LEVIES

Each of these expenditures had been paid through drafts drawn on the county treasurer by the superintendent, who had taken out of the State and county levies, and was also alleged by the petitioners that these drafts had been drawn before the school board had acted upon the expenditure which they covered. The ratification of the course taken by the superintendent was charged, is a direct violation of the rules of the education board. According to the petitioners, these rules provided that the school trustees shall meet and arrange for the money before it can be spent by the superintendent.

Attorney C. W. Throckmorton representing the respondents in the case, and argued that the rules of the education board left the expenditure of the school funds almost entirely to the discretion of the school board. He said that it was left to its judgment to determine the best way of spending the funds for the improvement of the county school system. With this as its guide, Attorney Throckmorton held, it had no objection to purchasing the automobile and to secure the offices in the Chamber of Commerce Building as a means of improving the schools.

No official announcement was made last night as to who would be held responsible for the money spent for the purposes protested against by the petitioners, but it was intimated that the school board would be held responsible for the money spent for the purposes protested against by the petitioners, but it was intimated that the school board would be held responsible for the money spent for the purposes protested against by the petitioners.

DETECTIVES MAKE RAID ON THREE SOCIAL CLUBS

Arrest Proprietors and Members on Warrants Charging Gambling Operations.

TAILOR SAYS HE LOST $4,000

August Brantz Driven to Bankruptcy,
It Is Alleged, by Nightly Sitings,
Officers Find Proprietors Quietly
Awaiting Their Arrival.

Three alleged gambling houses, operating under charters governing social clubs, in which August Brantz, a tailor, claims to have lost nearly $4,000 during the last twelve months, early this morning were raided by the police, and the proprietors arrested. There was nothing spectacular in the raids. The men were alone in the clubrooms, apparently forewarned of what was to occur and waiting for the detectives to make their appearance.

The first place raided was the Manhattan Club, 412 East Broad Street, where L. E. Ward, C. H. Field, M. E. Thomas and Christian Evenson were arrested, charged with operating and maintaining a gambling house.

The second place raided was the Virginia Club, 313 North Second Street, and B. Emmett Phelps, conducting the Monroe Club, at 315 North First Street, was the last to be taken into custody.

EVENSON DECLINES TO SUBMIT TO WARRANT

The detectives held only one warrant in the case against the Manhattan Club when they went to the rooms, but Evenson is said to have refused to submit to the warrant for his arrest, and this led to other warrants present. It was at one time thought that the detectives would have trouble in landing Evenson, but he quietly showed up and accompanied the officer peacefully.

Detective Sergeants Kregel, Atkinson and Bailey made the round-up of the alleged gambling places. Most of the houses have been under suspicion for some time, and nearly all of the men arrested have more than once been in court before on similar charges.

Brantz informed the police that he has been playing at the houses for nearly a year. During that time he has lost steadily, dropping it, it is alleged, more than $20 at each sitting. He has recently gone into bankruptcy, and holds his savings in the hands of trustees responsible for his business failures. He was the only witness named in the warrants against the men, and, with the detectives who made the raid, will appear again in court when the case is called to-day in the Police Court.

JAMES SUCCEEDS BIDGOOD

Unanimously Elected Captain of Company B, Light Infantry Blues Battalion.

Following the recent resignation of Captain R. H. Bidgood, who was re-elected at his own request with the rank of major, First Lieutenant M. F. James was last night elected captain of Company B, of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion. All the commissioned officers were moved up a peg. Second Lieutenant Lucien L. Bass was elected first lieutenant, and First Sergeant Warren M. Gordon was elected second lieutenant. The vacancies occasioned by the promotions in the ranks of the non-commissioned officers will be filled by appointment of Captain James next week.

In accordance with custom, the election was presided over by Captain Wyatt, president of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Association. Captain Wyatt took occasion to compliment the company on its effectiveness and fine spirit. All the elections were unanimous.

TO ELECT AUDITOR

State Normal School Board Called to Meet at East Radford.

The State Normal School Board has been called to meet at East Radford, at the State Normal and Industrial School for Women, October 23. At this meeting the board will go into the election of a permanent secretary and auditor. The secretary and auditor, who will be one and the same, is to be a general officer. He will take over the duties heretofore performed by the secretaries of the different normal schools of the State.

Under the reorganization plan adopted at a meeting held here some time ago each of the institutions will lose its secretary. The board decided to dispense with the secretaries as an economical measure, thus saving to the State about $4,000 a year.

Leaman Receives Souvenir.
W. P. ("Dutch"), otherwise known as "Admiral" Leaman, is the only man in Richmond who has a souvenir of the world's championship baseball series. He received yesterday from Umpire Byron, who was once with the Virginia League, the ball which Gowdy caught for the Boston Braves, lined out for two bases in the twelfth inning of the third game. Everybody with an echoing distance of Ninth and Broad Streets came to see the pellet. Some wanted to borrow it to show to the kids at home, but "Dutch" lent another souvenir for display once, and it is still out on loan.
